“The Inventor”

ENTP = Every New Thought Propels

ENTP's are quick to see complex interrelationships between people, things, and ideas and are able to analyze these interrelationships in profound detail.

ENTP's are frequently described as clever, cerebrally and verbally quick, enthusiastic, outgoing, innovative, flexible, loyal and resourceful.

ENTP's are motivated by a desire to understand and improve the world they live in. They are usually accurate in sizing up a situation. They may have a perverse sense of humor and sometimes play devil's advocate.
